

Allen Cover 2017

With more than 30 years of combined Law Enforcement, Corporate Physical Security experience and Retail Loss Prevention, I understand that asset protection covers both tangible and intangible assets. I focus my efforts on developing strategies and methodologies that strengthen an organizations reputation, relationships and creditworthiness, while providing protection of people, property and information.

With every organization, I believe that a well thought out strategic plan, combined with industry best practices and practical implementation strategies are key elements in providing the level of support needed to effectively protect assets.

I put significant effort into developing, influencing and nurturing trust-based relationships with business partners, government officials and professional organizations. I build, motivate and lead professional teams that are attuned to organizational culture, responsive to business needs and committed to integrity and excellence.

My expertise includes (but is not limited to) the following:

Subject Matter Expert – I provide or see to the provision of technical expertise appropriate to knowledgeable risk and cost effective delivery of essential security services.

Governance Team Member – I provide intellectual leadership and active support to the organizations governance team to ensure risks are made known to senior management and the Board.

Risk Manager – I identify, analyze and communicate on business and security related risks to the organization.

Strategist – I develop global security strategies keyed to likely risks and in collaboration with my organization's stakeholders.

Creative Problem Solver – I aid competitiveness and add value by enabling the organization to engage in business processes to mitigate risk. I am a positive change agent working on behalf of organizational protection.

Policy Maker – I Develop, write, and implement, training for security policies and procedures.

I look forward to speaking with you about how I might help your organization develop and maintain the protection of your valuable assets, as you pursue long-term organizational stability.

Respectfully,

Victor N. Allen
